

Ricardo Pires

Nurse | Emergency Services Coordinator | International Instructor | Health & Safety Advisor

Registered Nurse since 2016, currently serving as Nurse Coordinator of the General Emergency Department at Cascais Hospital. Previously worked in the Intensive Care Unit at the Local Health Unit of Santa Maria.

Also serves as a Fire Officer, holding the position of Company Commander.

Political Advisor for Safety and Security at the Municipality of Almada, previously holding similar responsibilities in Lisbon.

International Instructor in the field of trauma patient care:

- International Trauma Life Support (ITLS)
- Pre-Hospital Trauma Life Support (PHTLS)
- Medical Response to Major Incidents (MRMI)
- Vehicle Extrication and Rescue Operations

Academic Background:

- Postgraduate Diplomas in:
 - Conflict and Disaster Medicine
 - Emergency and Health Clinic
 - Municipal Civil Protection Coordination
 - Forest Fire Management
- Executive Master's Degree in Health Management and Administration

Academic Positions:

- University Lecturer and Course Coordinator of the module "Disaster and Mass Casualty Management (MCI)" at the Postgraduate Program in Medical Emergency and Disaster – Leiria
- Lecturer of Medical Emergencies I & II at the Postgraduate Program in Trauma, Emergency and Disaster Intervention – ISLA Santarém